

The Catherine B. Reynolds Civil War Washington Teacher Fellows

Join up to 20 teachers to learn about Abraham Lincoln, Frederick Douglass and Washington during the Civil War as you spend a day at each of these fascinating sites!

Session 1 (K – 5th Grade): Evening of Sunday, June 24 to Friday, June 29, 2012
Session 3 (6th – 12th Grade): Evening of Sunday, July 22 to Friday, July 27, 2012

As part of our six-day, six-night program, you will:

- Walk in the footsteps of Abraham Lincoln at Ford's Theatre
- Experience the home of a southern sympathizer at Tudor Place Historic House and Garden
- Immerse yourself in Lincoln's ideas at President Lincoln's Cottage
- Walk the halls of Cedar Hill, home of the famed abolitionist Frederick Douglass

Come away from your week in Washington familiar with: an array of virtual tours, the oratory skills to get your students on their feet performing speeches by Lincoln and Douglass; comfortable taking students on content-driven experiential learning adventures; and excited about using classroom drama to help historic characters come alive!

- Commuter registration fee of $300 includes workshops, materials, breakfasts and lunches, as well as dinner on Sunday evening.
- FREE for qualifying DCPS and Public Charter School Teachers
- All Fellows are eligible to obtain 3 graduate credit hours through Trinity University for an additional $375
